A COLLECT FOR CLUBWOMEN

Keep us, oh God, from pettiness;
Let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault-finding
And leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense
And meet each other face to face,
Without self-pity and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgement,
And always generous.

Let us take time for all things;
Make us grow calm, serene, gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses.
Straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is
The little things that create differences,
That in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know
The great, common human heart of us all,
And, oh Lord God, let us forget not
To be kind.

Mary Cooper's Helped Make Morrow Town She Loves

By BETTY CARROLLTON
Constitution Women's Editor

MORROW — Mrs. W. H. (Mary) Cooper, a gifted musician whose civic activities are underscored by personal pride in the town of her birth, is 1967 Homemaker of the Year of the Sixth Congressional District.

Mother of two children — Deborah Anne, 9, and William Mark, 7, — Mary was born in Morrow and has never lived anywhere else. "I've never wanted to live anywhere else," she told The Constitution. "I hope I never have to. We have a marvelous town here, and it is improving all the time."

Sixth in a series.

Much of that improvement can be credited to the dedicated young homemaker: She has served as president of the Morrow Junior Woman's Club, the organization which nominated Mary for homemaker honors, and is currently serving as treasurer of the Morrow Civic Improvement Drive.

BEAUTIFICATION

"We now have the money to begin work on our major community beautification project," Mary proudly reported. "We're going to beautify a spot in the center of town, turning the bus stop into an old-fashioned depot stand, with flowers lining the main street, which is down the railroad track. It gives me chill bumps of pleasure when I think how that area will look when we complete the project."

Mrs. Emma DeFoor, a retired schoolteacher in Morrow, declared that the Sixth District winner "has been an example and an inspiration because she has been a wife and mother who in every way possible filled the needs of her loved ones."

GREAT FULFILMENT

"The great need today is for more homes such as Mary's to make the world a better place. This is expressed meaningfully in the following lines by Grace Nell Crowell: 'So long as there are homes where fires burn and there is bread; So long as there are homes where lamps are lit and prayers said; although people falter through the dark — and nations grope — With God himself back of these little homes, we have sure hope."

PROUD OF HOME TOWN
Mrs. W. H. Cooper

"Mary's home reflects her good taste," added Mrs. Bobby E. Childs, president of the Morrow Junior Woman's Club. "It is artfully furnished, warm and friendly."

CHURCH PIANIST

Mary devotes her extensive musical knowledge and skill as a pianist primarily to her church, the First Baptist Church of Morrow. She has been pianist there for 10 years and is director of the Sunbeam Class Band, which has the highest honor rating possible for such an organization.

Co-chairman of the WMS, she teaches Vacation Bible School each year, is an assistant teacher in the Junior Department of the Sunday School. In addition to her contributions to her own church's musical programs, she is associational pianist for the Clayton Baptist Women's Missionary Society.

"I enjoy music," Mary said. "I took piano lessons from our next door neighbor. She's a marvelous teacher — now my daughter is taking lessons from her."

CHILDREN FIRST

The dedicated homemaker's civic activities are varied. She is education chairman of the Morrow JWC, after serving as club relations chairman, public affairs chairman, first vice president and president. In the PTA, she has been hospitality and inspirational chairman.

While her outside activities demand much of her time, Mary never allows them to interfere with her primary responsibility to her family.

Mary's husband, Homer, who is zone manager for an automobile manufacturer, has his own plane. The children share his enthusiasm for flying as a hobby. "They love to fly with him," Mary reported. "I'm still a little afraid."

CHILD TRAINING

The children are encouraged to develop self-reliance by making their own decisions. They are encouraged to learn money management through discretion in the handling of their allowances. Each is encouraged to tithe and to save part of their allowances. They are completely responsible for care of the family pets, have been taught to assume responsibility for their clothing and personal appearance. They perform such household chores as cleaning their rooms, helping with the kitchen work and "straightening up" the house.

Deborah Anne and William Mark are exposed to good music and literature as part of their home environment. They are developing an awareness of possible career choices through reading and hobbies.

Mary assures her family an excellent diet by properly varied menus. She contributes by freezing vegetables in season, by making jams, jellies, preserves, r e l i s h e s and pickles. She also freezes main dishes and baked goods.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper will be special guests of the Southeastern Fair on Homemakers' Day, Oct. 5, when Mary will vie with nine other district winners for the state title.

At this time the Morrow Junior Woman's Club, Morrow Kiwanis, and Morrow Lions Club will provide the people with an opportunity of meeting all candidates seeking election in the City of Morrow.

Each candidate will have time to speak and in turn the citizens may submit written questions from the floor. The moderator will be State Senator Kenneth Kilpatrick of Morrow. The citizens of Morrow have expressed a desire for a meeting of this type and feel the importance of the December 2nd election and an upcoming referendum warrant its need.

Everyone in this vicinity is urged to attend. There are many questions residents outside the city may have as well as those residing within the limits. We are hopeful everyone will attend, become interested in our community and by so doing make it a productive one.

To have each citizen of Morrow a registered voter is the aim of the Morrow Junior Woman's Club. For this reason a special registration is scheduled for Saturday, November 18, at Morrow City Hall between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 12 noon.

According to Tootsie McKinnon, City Clerk, all persons who shall have by December 2, 1967, been a resident of the city of Morrow for six months and a resident of the State of Georgia for one year and who shall have by such date be qualified to vote in election for members of the General Assembly of Georgia are eligible to register to vote in the December 2 election for a Mayor and two Councilmen. However, at this time, one will be able to register for general elections and city elections as both officials will be present for registration.

STONE MOUNTAIN

By MARIJO TONEY, Age 10

Stone Mountain is the place to be,
There's lots of fun and sights to see.
You may climb the mountain high,
Or ride the lift through the sky.

The train is such a thrill as it goes around the hill,
The children scream and cry, but don't know why.

As you sail on the Robert E. Lee, there is camp sites you may see,
So visit Georgia, folks, it's a wonderful place to be.

A CHEROKEE ROSE

By JANE HOWELL, Age 11

It sat lonely, but beautiful
By the side of the road.
It wasn't large.
But in the dawn of day
As I walked past,
It looked powerful,
Tiny, but powerful enough
To have its own way.
Tiny, delicate, gay.

Only one set against this huge wood pose,
A Cherokee Rose.

GEORGIA

By KRISTIE BENDER, Age 11

I love to see the sweet Georgia things,
Like the birds, bees, flowers and trees.
To think of these things makes me sing.
The leaves on the trees make me feel free.
The flowers beneath my feet are very sweet,
The sun shines so clean and bright,
The cricket chirping in the moonlight,
All these things, make Georgia hard to beat.

CHEROKEE ROSE

By DEBRA BALLEW, Age 11

You've heard of roses, with red petals,
And daisies with yellow heads.
- am sure you've heard of Pansies,
Sleeping in their flower beds.

Tulips are in your gardens, with
Their teeth open wide
Even violets so tiny and small
Love to show their pride.

But have you heard of the Cherokee Rose?
Painted with yellow, you see,
It's the Georgian symbol, you know,
And that means much to me.

Little League Begins

The long-awaited day finally arrived with more of a bang than anyone expected last Saturday, when over 500 people turned out for opening day festivities of the Morrow-Lake City Recreation Association.

The parade heralding the beginning of another baseball season was a half-mile length of vehicles carrying teams and dignitaries throughout the "twin cities".

Among the well-known in the procession were Superior Court Judge Harold Banke, whose auto bore a sign proclaiming "Here Comes De Judge!", sheriff Bill Murray, and Morrow mayor Frank Frame. The president of the Morrow Junior Woman's Club, Millie Childs, sat atop a peacock cart, adorned in peacock feathers, enacting the cock of our youth proud as a peacock.

At ceremonies on the field, Judge Banke addressed the crowd and told the teams lined up around the field, "You've heard that diamonds are a girl's best friend. Well, I want you to know that a diamond... a baseball diamond, that is, can be a boy's best friend, too, for by playing ball and participating in these sponsored activities, you will learn three very important things to take you through life. These are sportsmanship, fair play, and abiding by rules."

Best wishes were given to the association by the president of the Lake City Community Club, and Rudolph Johnson, past-president of Morrow Kiwanis Club.

The Morrow Lions Club also wished the teams well, and presented a check to Little League president Ron Napy. Then to the umpire's cry of "Play Ball!", Judge Banke threw the first ball of the season, officially opening the summer fun.

The all-day barbeque which was prepared and served by the Ladies' Auxiliary, aided by members of the Junior Woman's Club, was the most successful the association has ever seen. Although accurate accounts have not been tabulated, it is estimated that around a thousand dollars profit was made.

Baseball games are scheduled every day Monday through Friday from now on, with the Connie Mack schedule to be announced later. Three fields will be utilized most of the time this year, which includes two behind Morrow School and the one on Reynolds Road. An additional field will be used behind the First Baptist Church
