RECOMMENDATIONS FROM THE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT REGARDING SCHOLARSHIP

1. Definition: The Morrow Junior Woman's Club is establishing a scholarship for a woman, twenty-five years or older at Clayton Junior College. The scholarship will be known as the Morrow Junior Woman's Club Scholarship.
2. The amount of the scholarship will be $100.00, minimum, and will be given annually.
3. The scholarship will be publicized in local newspapers, by flyers posted in daycare facilities, grocery stores, public schools and businesses frequented by women. We will request that our scholarship be announced at local P.T.A. meetings. Students will be informed of the scholarship through appropriate channels.
4. The first scholarship will be given prior to March 9, 1982, the deadline for Spring quarter applications and credentials. (It was suggested that the recipient be recognized at our annual banquet, if possible.)
5. The Education Department recommends formation of a selection committee containing one of each of the following:
 - (1) Executive Committee
 - (2) Budget and Finance
 - (3) Education DepartmentThis should provide an equitable representation of the membership. The Education Department Chairman should be notified of representative by October 15, 1981. Dr. Margaret C. Davis, Director of Counseling and Testing at Clayton Junior College has kindly agreed to advise this committee.
6. A C.P.A. is being consulted about applying for tax-free status.
7. A letter to solicit contributions will be considered after receiving response from IRS and results of food concession at Historic Jonesboro.
8. The Education Department recommends that the scholarship shall be administered in future years by the Education Department or a scholarship committee appointed by the President.
9. The Education Department recommends that Budget and Finance be responsible for investing the corpus. The possibility of having this handled by a trust department of a bank should be investigated.
10. The Education Department recommends examining the possibility of including the scholarship in the standing rules.
11. The Morrow Junior Woman's Club will be responsible for administering the scholarship and investing the corpus. Federal guidelines prohibit Clayton Junior College from discriminating on the basis of sex, race, or age.

The October meeting of the Morrow Junior Woman's Club was held on October 1, 1981, at the Maddox Road Community Center. Nan Peeples, First Vice President, called the meeting to order. Eloise Bertschin gave the devotion. The minutes were read and approved as corrected. Virginia Cheves reported the balance-on-hand as of October 1, 1981, was $1,003.22. The savings account has $160.34.

Mary Ann MacLane discussed the silent auction sponsored by the Arts Department to be held at the November meeting. A pumpkin decorating contest will be held at Lake Harbin Elementary on October 26th.

Carol Hatfield reported for the Education Department. She presented the guidelines for the scholarship to be presented in the spring. She also reported that the Cancer Society Salad Day in which some members participated netted $1,000.

Jayne Troy gave details concerning the concession stand for Historical Jonesboro Bazaar next weekend.

The program consisted of the Arts Department's directing an apron making assembly line. These aprons are to be used at the bazaar.

The meeting adjourned at 9:45 p.m.
