CLAYTON STATE COLLEGE

MORROW, GEORGIA

SPECIAL ISSUE

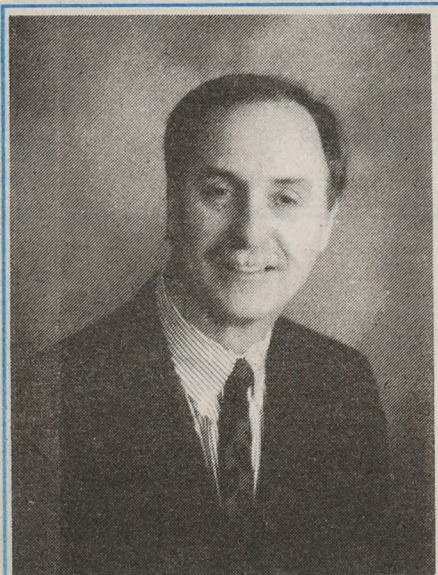

Welcome To Clayton State College

Welcome From President Skinner

Dear Clayton State College Students:

The pleasure is very much mine to welcome you to the new academic year and the culmination of the College's 25th Anniversary. The College opened its doors to a few hundred students back in 1969. This year, the College will provide classes to nearly 4,500 students and services and training and enrichment to another 5,000 persons through our Continuing Education programs. More than 15,000 people will have the pleasure of hearing great music in Spivey Hall.

We want to make this fall quarter a special time for you, everyone on the faculty and staff of the College, and for people throughout the region. To that end, we are hosting on campus the Southern Crescent Celebration. On Thursday, September 29, at 3:00 p.m., the presidential inauguration will be held beside the lake and you are cordially invited.

Friday, September 30 is when we give special recognition to you, the staff and faculty, and our alumni with fall homecoming. Music, food, and entertainment will be available on campus all day.

On Saturday, October 1, the campus will be home from 10:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. to the first Festival of Southern Cultures; to artists, artisans, and craftspersons; to bands and performers; and to food of all kinds and flavors. Plan on bringing friends and family and joining thousands of people from throughout the Southern (See Dr. Skinner on page 2)

Welcome From Vice President McElroy

Dear Clayton State College Students:

I am delighted to have this opportunity to welcome you to Clayton State College. I am pleased that you have chosen Clayton State, and I believe that you will be pleased with your choice.

The faculty at Clayton have worked to develop a reputation for offering quality programs. Clayton's general education program has been praised in several national publications for addressing some of the most important educational issues of our time. The program seeks to make learning more available to students by clearly identifying desired learning outcomes and by providing students with systematic feedback concerning their progress in developing these desired abilities.

Greetings From Dean Bolander

Greetings:

Welcome to Clayton State College. We hope you new students will find our many resources helpful in the pursuit of your goals and dreams; we trust you returning students have already discovered that the Dean of Students Office provides a number of student support services — student activities, study skills, financial aid, counseling, veterans services, career development, multicultural affairs ...even lost and found.

Most important, we provide the heart of the incidental learning experiences on this campus. Our co-curricular activities are geared to provide you with the best possible opportunities to grow beyond the classroom and to obtain all of the full benefits of a well-rounded college education.

Perhaps, just as important to new students as they begin to find out what's what, we're here to help answer your questions. When you have any question that needs to be answered, we can get you to the right person to ask the right question. In fact, with our open-door policy, we're readily available to help you figure out what you want to know.

We believe this is a beautiful environment in which individuals can develop their capacities to the fullest — and we want to help. Please feel good about asking us for that assistance.

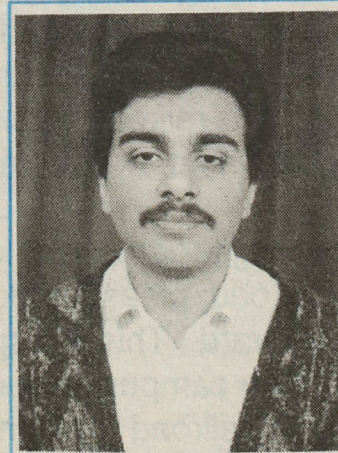

Sincerely,

Robert C. Bolander
Dean of Students

TAKE THE DIRECT ROUTE OUT - USE
CLAYTON STATE BOULEVARD

Last Fall, Clayton State Boulevard opened. This new road has eased the problem of getting on and off campus quickly. Clayton State Boulevard connects the campus directly with Jonesboro Road. It has three lanes turning onto Jonesboro Road and this provides much easier access. Returning students remember how they waited through several traffic signal changes when they exited campus by North Lee Street and attempted to cross the railroad track at Oxford Drive. Now they take the more convenient Clayton State Boulevard route.

If you are coming to campus or leaving campus by way of Jonesboro Road, please make a point of using Clayton State Boulevard. This will speed your arrival to and departure from campus, reduce the congestion at the Oxford Drive railroad crossing, and make life easier for you and the neighborhoods surrounding the College.

CSC Buildings Go "Smoke-Free" Starting Today

Effective today the buildings at Clayton State College will be "smoke free."

Last spring, the Executive Committee of the College voted unanimously to approve a resolution from the Student Government Association to eliminate smoking from all campus buildings. This action came after surveys of students, faculty, and staff and four open forums devoted exclusively to a discussion of a no-smoking policy. The overwhelming message that emerged from all of this was a desire on the part of a large majority of College citizens to end smoking inside of our buildings.

President Skinner, in a memorandum to faculty and staff, wrote, "I have considered all aspects of this issue, mindful of my past as a four-pack-per-day smoker, and weighed the 'rights' of smokers against both the desires of non-smokers and the growing body of evidence that indicates the very serious consequences of 'second-hand smoke.'

With all of this in mind, I am hereby announcing the following College policy:

College Policy on Smoking

In order to protect the health and well-being of faculty, staff, and students, Clayton State College prohibits all smoking inside campus buildings, effective September 19, 1994. Specific areas outside campus buildings are designated for those individuals who wish to smoke.

Assistance

Clayton State College seeks to assist smokers in complying with institutional policy related to smoking. Local service agencies offering stop-smoking programs are as follows: American Lung Association, 872-9653; South Fulton Medical Health Advancement Center, 305-4450; and the American Cancer Society (Clayton County Chapter), 961-8921.

South Fulton Medical Center will be offering a eight-week education and support program designed by the American Lung Association to help you quit smoking for good. This program can be used in conjunction with a physician-prescribed nicotine patch. To register call 305-4550. The cost is $60. The program will take place at South Fulton Medical Center and Begins Thursday, November 3.

A smoking cessation workshop/seminar is planned for the annual Wellness Fair, set for Thursday, October 13.

Federal Crackdown Proposed To Curb Smoking By Teens

On September 13, a National Academy of Sciences committee said that tough new measures, such as banning cigarette machines and placing a heavy federal tax on tobacco products, may be necessary to reduce the growing number of teen smokers.

According to an article published in the Atlanta Journal-Constitution, "Every day, an estimated 3,000 young Americans become regular smokers. They are cutting their lives short by an average of 15 years. The extra medical costs for each day's crop of new smokers will total more than $20 million during their lifetimes, experts say."

The recommendations of the committee include:

- * Increasing federal cigarette taxes by $2.00 per pack.
- * Banning tobacco vending machines
- * Banning self-service tobacco displays
- * Repealing the federal law that prevents state and local governments from regulating tobacco promotion.
- * Intensifying anti-smoking media campaigns.
- * Requiring merchants to obtain state licenses to sell tobacco products.
- * Increasing the use of tobacco-free policies in areas frequented by children and youth.

Presidential Inauguration, Anniversary Party And Southern Crescent Festival Highlight First Weeks Of Fall Quarter

Next week is going to be a busy one. On Thursday, September 29, Dr. Richard Skinner, the College's second president, will be inaugurated. The outdoor ceremony will begin at 3:00 p.m. and will take place near the lake shore behind the library. The gymnasium will be the alternate site in case of inclement weather. All members of the CSC community are invited to attend the ceremony and the reception following.

Chancellor Portch will be on hand for this important event, as will representatives from all schools in the University System of Georgia. A new trumpet fanfare was written for this occasion. This piece was composed by Dr. Brent Weaver of the CSC music faculty.

Friday brings the 25th Anniversary celebration. CSC opened in the Fall of 1969 and this activity will be a party for the entire campus. There will be food, fun, entertainment, competitions, art, drama, multicultural and international displays, laser karaoke, a time capsule and more that day. The activity will begin at 9:00 a.m. and will run until 1:30 when the closing ceremony begins. The ceremony will feature the presentation of a time capsule that will be opened at the 50th anniversary of the College in 2019.

The Southern Crescent Festival will be held on Saturday, October 1, from 10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. Exhibits of Arts and Crafts, a variety of live musical acts, an outdoor food court, cultural displays and more will highlight this activity designed to bring the community to campus. CAMPUS NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

We want you to be a part of The Bent Tree. The guidelines for submissions are below. We invite you to submit articles, art work, poetry, and other items of interest. Submit them in room D-223.

Guidelines For Student Newspaper Submissions (Approved by the Student Publications Committee)

The Bent Tree will contain six basic types of entries. They are listed as follows:

1. News - News stories are to be straight forward descriptions of upcoming or past events of relevance to the campus community. The reporter should refrain from making judgments or expressing opinion in a news story. Quoted opinions should be attributed as specifically as possible. News stories should be balanced in approach and accurate in detail. News stories are written only by staff members of The Bent Tree.

2. Features - Features are staff-produced articles, poems, essays, reviews, listings, etc., of a noncontroversial nature. This would include magazine-type submissions. The basic purpose of a feature is to provide useful and/or interesting information to the audience of The Bent Tree.

3. Editorials - Editorials are staff-written expressions of opinion on a topic of current interest to the audience of The Bent Tree. Unsigned editorials are presumed to represent the opinion of The Bent Tree staff. Signed editorials represent the opinion of the writer and may or may not reflect staff consensus. Editorials will be clearly identified as such by either placement on the editorial page or specific notation. Any factual information contained in editorials should be accurate.

4. Letters - Letters to the editor should be published only if they address a matter of current and timely concern to The Bent Tree. Letters are subject to standard editing, but the editors will take care to see that the editing does not alter the writer's basic message. Editors are not obligated to print all letters, but if letters are received on both sides of a controversial issues, letters on each side should be printed. If more than one letter is to be printed on either side of a controversial issue, the number of letters printed should be roughly in proportion to the number received on each side. Unsigned letters will not be accepted. Names may be withheld for valid reasons. The social security number of the writer is also required on the submission.

5. Free-lance Submission - Free-lance submissions may be accepted from members of the College community on any subject, but a submission that is essentially a short statement of opinion on a timely subject should be submitted as a letter to the editor and not as a free-lance article. Free-lance submissions will be accepted only if they are well written, substantive, accurate in fact, and of interest to the audience of The Bent Tree. Care will be taken to make sure that a variety of submissions are accepted if they are offered. This is so that one point of view does not dominate. Free-lance submissions will not be accepted on a regular or continuing basis from a single organization or individual. Regular submissions are included under category six (columns). Free-lance submissions will be clearly identified as not being written by the staff of The Bent Tree. Headings such as "Guest Commentary," "Student Viewpoint," etc., can be used by the editor in identifying such submissions. As an alternative, the byline or a statement at the end of an article could be used to identify the author if not a member of the staff. All free-lance submissions have to include the name and social security number of the contributor.

6. Columns - These are regularly appearing articles that fall in none of the above categories. Members of the College community who contribute a regular column to The Bent Tree become auxiliary members of the staff and agree to meet space, style, deadline and format requirements as the editor shall decide. Columnists shall, however, be given editorial freedom as to content. These columns should be clearly identified as such by placement, title, or appropriate notation.

Maverick Opens Free Friday Fall Film Schedule

The fall quarter General Entertainment film schedule opens on Friday, September 23, with Maverick, starring Mel Gibson in a change of pace from his Lethal Weapon triumphs. Academy Award-winning actress Jody Foster co-stars with James Garner (the original Bret Maverick - TV version). The action moves from the wild canyons and prairies to the smoky interiors of gambling dens in "Wild West" saloons. This 127 minute "PG"-rated feature will be a kiddie/adult combination feature.

Showings will take place in G-132 at 12:30, 8:30 and 10:45 p.m. The early evening show, at 7:30 p.m., will take place in the Continuing Education Building (CE-101) following the 6:30 p.m. Family Night Dinner. See the related story below for details.

Fall Family Night Dinner Set For Friday, September 23

This quarter's Family Night Dinner is set for Friday evening, September 23. Dinner will be served from 6:30 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. in the atrium of the Continuing Education Building (on the opposite side of the lake from the Student Center). Dinner will be followed by a 7:10 p.m. drawing for a variety of the traditionally fun and foolish prizes. Maverick, the featured film of the evening, will be shown in room CE-101, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets for this popular quarterly event will be available beginning Monday, September 19. They will be on sale at the cash registers in the Food Court (lower level of the Student Center building).

The menu will be the ever-popular barbecue pork and hot dog platters. Platters include chips, Otis Spunkmeyer cookies, and a soft drink or tea. Single sandwich platters are priced at $2.00 each and double platters are priced at $3.00 each. If you wonder why the prices are exceptionally reasonable it is because the General Entertainment Committee, sponsors of the event, are underwriting a portion of the cost of each ticket.

Spike Lee's Crooklyn Is Set For Four Screenings on October 7

Spike Lee, the director of such major films as Malcolm X and Do The Right Thing, turns semi-autobiographical with Crooklyn, his newest feature film. Alfre Woodard, of TV's St. Elsewhere and the films Passion Fish, and Cross Creek, stars as a loving but tired mother who struggles to make ends meet and provide a home for her unemployed musician husband and their five children. NBC-TV's Norman Mark said that Crooklyn is, "An entire neighborhood of laughs. This is Spike Lee's funniest film." While another reviewer called it "Spike Lee's most heartfelt and touching film!"

Rated "PG-13," Crooklyn will be shown at 12:30, 6:30, 8:30 and 10:30 p.m. in G-132. There will be a kiddie film in G-127 at 6:30 and 8:30 p.m. If your children are out of diapers and can behave without your being present they are welcome to attend the kiddie film. You may also accompany children who are not quite ready to see films on their own.

ADMISSION TO ACTIVITIES
 There is no admission fee for activities program except "Family Night" dinners or other events with meal functions. Members of the College community may bring guests, at no cost, to any of the free activities. There are charges for many of the Spivey Hall concerts. CSC student can claim two free tickets for Spivey Hall events by calling the Spivey Hall ticket office at 961-3683. Free tickets are occasionally required for activities due to limited space. If necessary, notices will be placed in appropriate campus locations.

Lakers 1994 Soccer Squad Is Off To A Promising Start

The third Clayton State College men's soccer season got off to a promising start last week as the young squad opened up with two road games. The Lakers opened on the road, for the third consecutive season, on September 3, against the University of Montevallo, a first-year NAIA program, and came away with a 1-1 tie. CSC then faced Augusta College, an NCAA Division II opponent, on September 7, but fell 4-2.

Against Montevallo, the Lakers came from behind to tie the game after the hosts scored their inaugural goal on a penalty kick. Sophomore defenseman Richard Oates of Jonesboro tied the game for the Lakers on a header goal on a well-timed assist from freshman forward Jason Nidiffer of Ellenwood.

Clayton State's youthful inexperience came out against Augusta. The Lakers got taken out of their game plan and were out-shot 20-9. CSC trailed 3-1 when an Augusta player received his second yellow card of the afternoon thereby giving the Lakers a one-man advantage. Freshman midfielder Devin Geyer of Peachtree City got CSC back in the game with an unassisted goal with 13 minutes left in the match. But with less than six minutes to play, the Laker defense gave up its fourth goal of the game en route to CSC third straight loss to Augusta.

The Lakers were back in action on Saturday, September 17 with their home opener against Rhodes College, an NCAA Division II opponent from Memphis, Tenn. This game took place after the deadline for this issue of The Bent Tree.

NOTES: Junior forward Stephen Zoeller of Lawrenceville scored his sixth career goal against Augusta.... CSC is 1-1-1 in season openers.... The Lakers are 1-1-0 in home openers heading into Saturday's game with Rhodes.... CSC is 7-5-1 for games played during the month of September.... Because of two yellow cards against Montevallo, freshman forward Jason Nidiffer of Ellenwood had to sit out CSC's game against Augusta.... CSC freshman goalkeeper Jeremy Yorgason of Snellville has made 15 goalie saves in two games played.
