

What's Going On Here

Volume II, No. 1

CLAYTON JUNIOR COLLEGE

July 2, 1970

SYMPATHY

The sympathy of the faculty, staff and students is extended to President and Mrs. Harry S. Downs on the occasion of the death of her father at Glennville, Georgia Tuesday, June 30, after an extended illness. Funeral services are to be conducted this morning in Glennville. Please omit flowers.

A MOST CORDIAL, THOUGH SLIGHTLY BELATED, WELCOME TO TWO NEW STAFF EMPLOYEES

Mr. Richard R. Weber is our new Bookstore Manager. Mr. Weber is a retired Sergeant Major of the United States Army. He was previously employed by the Fulton County Board of Education, where he served as a ROTC Instructor at College Park High School.

Mr. David B. Jones is our new Storekeeper in Central Stores. David has attended Georgia State University and comes to us after working in the History Department of that institution.

A hearty Welcome Aboard to each of you.

BOOK ORDERS FOR ALL QUARTER DUE IN THIS WEEK

All Division Chairmen and Faculty members are reminded that the Bookstore needs your request for books for the fall quarter. This is the busiest time of the year for publishers and we must get our orders in now if we are to have the proper books on hand by the opening of the Fall Quarter, according to Mr. Richard Weber, Bookstore Manager. Forms to be used for requesting books to be ordered are available from the secretary of each division. It is very important that your requests be received no later than Wednesday, July 8.

MAN OF THE HOUR

Radio Station WSB honored Mr. Stanley S. Jones, Dean of Students, Friday June 26 by awarding to him its "WS Beaver Award" and saluted Dean Jones by announcing the following statement all day:

"Today's WS Beaver Award goes to Mr. Stanley S. Jones, President of the Atlanta Chapter of the United Nations Association for his work in this organization which works for Peace, Freedom, and Justice."

We join in saluting Dean Jones for this valuable civic contribution.

CLAYTON ART ALLIANCE TO MEET ON CAMPUS

The newly formed Clayton Art Alliance will hold its second meeting in Room D-10, Student Center Building, Thursday, July 9, at 7:30 p.m. The Alliance is currently looking for a permanent location where members can both meet and use for a studio. They would appreciate receiving any suggestions you might have concerning such a location that would be reasonable in cost. Your information can be given to Bob Winn in the Community Services Office. All members of the Clayton Junior College Family are cordially welcome to attend the meeting Thursday night and to join the new Art Alliance if they care to.

SMAGA

The third meeting of the elected policy making officials of the South Metropolitan Government and Geographic Area will be held Thursday evening, July 9, in the Cafeteria at 6:45 p.m. Following dinner the group will move to the Student Lounge for another in its series of programs. Sponsored by the Community Services Office the programs are educational in nature.

Attendance is by invitation only, but all members of the Faculty are invited to join with this group by making reservations through the Community Services Office, Ext. 214. Reservations are necessary. The cost is $3.00 per person.

PEOPLE AND PLACES

Mr. Hugh Stanley recently attended a Seminar on Heating and Air Conditioning at Middle Georgia College, Cochran, Georgia.

Mr. Steve Edwards visited South Georgia College, Douglas, Georgia, last week where he talked with the Administrator of their Criminal Justice program. Mr. Edwards and Dr. Charles Downs are reviewing and evaluating the possibilities for such a program on our own campus.

Miss Nancy Cross attended a meeting of the Georgia Articulation Committee at Macon, Georgia on June 24. This committee sponsors College Nights and other related activities on behalf of the colleges in the state with prospective students.

Mr. Tom Mullenix recently attended a conference for the directors of Plant Operations conducted by the Board of Regents at Brunswick Junior College, Brunswick, Georgia

FALL QUARTER APPLICATIONS

Miss Nancy Cross, Director of Admissions has announced that Applications for the Fall Quarter have been received from more than 750 persons. Last year at the same time applications had been received from 560 persons.

This newsletter is published weekly. Issue date is Friday and material must be submitted by the Thursday noon preceding publication. All information should be in writing. You are encouraged to submit items each week to the Community Services Office.

What's Going On Here

Volume II, No. 2

CLAYTON JUNIOR COLLEGE

July 17, 1970

NURSING STUDENT LOANS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

President Harry S. Downs has been notified by the Director of the Division of Health Manpower Educational Services, Bureau of Health Professions Education and Manpower Training, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, that the college has received $12,809 for the 1970-71 fiscal year under the Health Professions Student Assistant Programs.

LIBRARY GRANT

An amended grant award notification has been received from the Director of the Division of Library Programs, Bureau of Libraries and Education Technology, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, bringing the total amount of funds available to Clayton Junior College for the acquisition of higher education library materials to $6,521 for fiscal year 1971.

GUBERNATORIAL RALLY

The Student Activities Committee has sent invitations to all gubernatorial candidates for a rally to be held Tuesday, July 28, in the cafeteria of the Student Center. The rally is to enable students unfamiliar with platforms of candidates or who will vote for the first time to make knowledgeable decisions in casting their ballots.

There will be two sessions, 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. Each gubernatorial candidate will be given ten minutes to present his platform and after each session, students will be invited to talk with the candidate and ask any questions they might have.

The general public is invited.

FINANCIAL AID

Mrs. Lucy Champion, Financial Aid Officer, announced today that 120 Clayton Junior College students received approximately $50,000 in financial aid for the 1969-70 school year making it possible for them to get their education.

These students received money from the College Work Study Programs, Loans, Grants and Scholarships.

The 61 students that were awarded College Work Study worked approximately 16,000 hours receiving valuable training.

Mrs. Champion further stated that August 24 - 28 would be declared "Honor College Work Study Students Week".

SUMMER FACULTY MEMBER

Mrs. Willa McGarity, Instructor of Nursing, will be teaching at Clayton Junior College June 29 - July 31. Mrs. McGarity teaches during the school year at Dekalb College where she has taught for the past two years.

MUSIC FOR THE STUDENT CENTER

Mr. James R. Robertson, Comptroller, has begun a project which will put music in the dining hall, recreation room, and book store in the Student Center. Music will be provided by an AM/FM stereo receiver and speaker outfit which will cost approximately $500. The control unit will be located either in the dining hall or book store.

A "GET TO KNOW YOU" DANCE

A dance will be held at Clayton Junior College, Friday, July 24, from 8 til 12 pm in the courtyard between the classroom building and the Student Center. The Student Activities Committee is extending a personal invitation to all students, faculty, staff, parents and dates. No admission will be charged.

PEOPLE AND PLACES

Stanley S. Jones, Dean of Students, attended a conference on Air Pollution Control held at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel in Atlanta.

Mr. Tom Mullenix, Director of Plant Operations, will attend the 12th annual workshop of The Association of Physical Plant Administrators which is sponsored by Georgia Tech, July 27 - 31. Attendance is by invitation only.

Mr. Bob Winn, Director of Community Services is attending a Southern Industrial Relations Conference at Black Mountain, North Carolina, this week.

Mr. David Jones, our new Storekeeper in Central Stores, was seriously injured in a fourth of July weekend automobile accident and is slowly recovering in Georgia Baptist Hospital.

We welcome Mr. "Bo" Bolander, Director of Student Activities, to our staff and faculty. This fall he will not only be Director of Student Activities, but also will serve as Assistant Professor of History.

Mr. Bolander is married, interested in politics, is a sports enthusiast, and has a mongrel-German Shepherd dog, "Schiffa".

Mr. Terry Vacalis, Instructor of Physical Education, is teaching a non-credit photography course for students interested in developing their talents for taking photographs with artistic value. Mr. Vacalis has written the book which is being used for the course.

Sixteen students are presently enrolled and the course is still open to all interested personnel. Contact Mr. Vacalis.

The photography students will learn to load, develop, print their own film, do copy work, portraitures, and trick photography. Toward the end of the course the students will be painting with light and working with color slides. Mr. Vacalis hopes that his photography students will compose a program of the college and help produce the photographs for the 1970-71 college annual.

This newsletter is published weekly. Issue date is Friday and material must be submitted by the Thursday noon preceding publication. All information should be in writing. You are encouraged to submit items each week to the Community Services Office.

What's Going On Here

gbr

Volume II No. 3

CLAYTON JUNIOR COLLEGE

July 24, 1970

POLITICAL RALLY SET.....

Gubernatorial candidates will appear at a political rally Tuesday, July 28, in the College cafeteria.

Sessions at 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. will include 10-minute presentations by each candidate. After each session there will be a question and answer period.

Candidates scheduled to appear at 10 a.m. are Jimmy Bentley, Jimmy Carter, Jan Cox, Dr. McKee Hargrett, Thomas Irwin, Linda Jenness, Jephtha Tanksley, J.B. Stoner, Hal Suit and Judge Tanksley.

The rally, coordinated by the Clayton Junior College Student Government Association, is open to the public.

INFORMATION SERVICES DIRECTOR NAMED.....

Miss Deanna Stille has been named Director of Information Services for Clayton Junior College.

Miss Stille, an Atlantan, was public relations assistant at Georgia State University for four years before joining the Clayton Junior College staff. She received the AB degree in Journalism from Georgia State University in 1969, and she is an alumnae advisor for Alpha Phi sorority.

FACULTY MEETINGS SCHEDULED.....

Summer Quarter 1970 Faculty Meetings will be held from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. on Thursday, July 30 and Wednesday, August 19 in Room D-10-12 of the Student Center.

FINANCIAL AID FIGURES RELEASED.....

Latest figures show that $63,893 in financial aid was awarded to Clayton Junior College students during the 1969-70 fiscal year.

Mrs. Lucy Champion, Financial Aid Officer, said that anticipated appropriations for 1970-71 total $78,807.

A breakdown of the appropriations shows $38,600 for College Work Study; $11,100 - Educational Opportunity Grant; $11,685 (proposed) - National Defense Student Loan; $2,213 - Law Enforcement Educational Program; $2,400 - Regent Scholarship; $5,358 - Nursing Student Scholarship, and $7,451 - Nursing Student Loan.

NAME TAGS AVAILABLE.....

Clayton Junior College name tags are available in the Community Service Office.

Faculty members can get them as needed. The tags are provided as a service and they are to be used with discretion due to the cost involved, said Bob Winn, Director of Community Services. A "large type" typewriter for use in typing name tags is available in Community Services.

SPECIAL NOTICE.....

Due to the political rally in the cafeteria on Tuesday, tables will be set-up in the recreation room. Food will be served in the cafeteria but everyone is requested to eat in the recreation area. Trays should be returned to the cafeteria!

PEOPLE AND PLACES.....

Jennie Morgan (Humanities) will attend a Seminar of Reading Disabilities, July 29 - 31.

Robert Bolander, Consultant - Student Affairs, will attend a Dean's Conference in Savannah, August 2 - 5.

Bob Winn, Community Services, and Deanna Stille, Information Services, today visited radio station WTJH in East Point for a public affairs program on Clayton Junior College.

DANCE TO BE HELD TONIGHT.....

A dance will be held tonight from 8 p.m. to midnight in the courtyard between the classroom building and the Student Center.

The student activities committee said that this is a get acquainted dance and there is no admission charge. Music will be provided by the Prisoners of Time.....

Faculty and staff are invited to attend.

ON THE SICKLIST.....

David Jones, Storekeeper in Central Stores, who was so seriously injured in a Fourth of July automobile accident, is happily showing marked improvement.

PAINTING ON DISPLAY.....

An interesting painting is on display in the Dean of Students office. Faculty and staff are invited to come by the Dean's office for a look at the painting.

NEWS WANTED.....

The Office of Information Services is interested in what is going on around the campus.

We would like to know not only of special events, but also what faculty, staff, and students are doing. So please notify Information Services of meetings attended; special recognitions; awards received; election to office in professional, civic, or social organizations; papers published, travels, and other news.

This newsletter is designed to contain information of interest to the faculty and staff at Clayton Junior College. The newsletter is published weekly by the Office of Public Information. Issue date is Friday and material must be submitted by the Wednesday noon preceding publication. You are invited to submit news. All information should be in writing.

SAT TO BE GIVEN.....

The College Entrance Examination Board Scholastic Aptitude Test will be given at Clayton Junior College from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m., August 17 and September 9, according to Miss Cross. Registration for the test should be made with the Admissions Office. The fee for taking the test is $5.50.

COMMUNITY SERVICES WANT TO KNOW.....

President Downs has requested that the Community Services Office coordinate all off-campus groups visiting Clayton Junior College for special meetings, seminars or conferences.

Whenever you are planning to bring in a group, the Community Services Office would like to know, so that other persons on campus needing information on meetings can be informed.

Bob Winn, Director of Community Services, said that he would like to emphasize that the Community Services Office wants to provide service to the faculty and staff in these instances so that visitors may be better received. "Many visitors seeking to find where a group is meeting have had to wait until the group could be physically located before they could be directed to it", Winn noted.

PEOPLE AND PLACES.....

Mr. Tom Mullenix, Director of Plant Operations, recently received a certificate for his participation in the University System of Georgia Seminar on Plant Operations.

Mr. Robert C. Bolander, Consultant, Student Affairs and Mr. Bob Winn, Director of Community Services, visited Macon Junior College, July 30. Mr. Bolander consulted with the Office of Student Affairs and Mr. Winn talked with Dr. Jack Carlton, President of Macon Junior College, about resources development and community services at Macon Junior College as they might apply to Clayton Junior College.

Mr. Robert C. Bolander also visited Kennesaw Junior College, July 29.

Mr. Bob Winn, will attend a conference sponsored by the American College Public Relations Association at the University of Notre Dame, August 3 - 7. The conference will deal with public relations and resources development.

SAT TO BE GIVEN.....

The College Entrance Examination Board Scholastic Aptitude Test will be given at Clayton Junior College from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m., August 17 and September 9, according to Miss Cross. Registration for the test should be made with the Admissions Office. The fee for taking the test is $5.50.

COMMUNITY SERVICES WANT TO KNOW.....

President Downs has requested that the Community Services Office coordinate all off-campus groups visiting Clayton Junior College for special meetings, seminars or conferences.

Whenever you are planning to bring in a group, the Community Services Office would like to know, so that other persons on campus needing information on meetings can be informed.

Bob Winn, Director of Community Services, said that he would like to emphasize that the Community Services Office wants to provide service to the faculty and staff in these instances so that visitors may be better received. "Many visitors seeking to find where a group is meeting have had to wait until the group could be physically located before they could be directed to it", Winn noted.

PEOPLE AND PLACES.....

Mr. Tom Mullenix, Director of Plant Operations, recently received a certificate for his participation in the University System of Georgia Seminar on Plant Operations.

Mr. Robert C. Bolander, Consultant, Student Affairs and Mr. Bob Winn, Director of Community Services, visited Macon Junior College, July 30. Mr. Bolander consulted with the Office of Student Affairs and Mr. Winn talked with Dr. Jack Carlton, President of Macon Junior College, about resources development and community services at Macon Junior College as they might apply to Clayton Junior College.

Mr. Robert C. Bolander also visited Kennesaw Junior College, July 29.

Mr. Bob Winn, will attend a conference sponsored by the American College Public Relations Association at the University of Notre Dame, August 3 - 7. The conference will deal with public relations and resources development.

Mr. James R. Robertson, Comptroller, will attend a Seminar on Campus Security at Armstrong College, August 2-4.

Dean Leonard R. Daniel will attend a meeting of the University System deans in Savannah, August 3 - 5.

Dean Stanley S. Jones, President of the Atlanta Chapter of the United Nations Association, will be interviewed on WPLO Radio, Sunday, August 2, at 9 a.m. He will speak about the U.N.A.

This newsletter is designed to contain information of interest to the faculty and staff at Clayton Junior College. The newsletter is published weekly by the Office of Information Services. Issue date is Friday and material must be submitted by the Wednesday noon preceding publication. You are invited to submit news. All information should be in writing.