

POTPOURRI

Volume III, No. 10

Clayton Junior College

March 12, 1971

According to President Downs, members of the Evaluation Committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools expressed gratification and appreciation of the manner in which they were received by faculty, staff and students on campus this week.

ON CAMPUS

***Monday will be the final day of classes for the Winter Quarter, and final examinations will be held Tuesday through Friday.

***According to John McLeod of the Graduation Committee, faculty members who need to order gowns for graduation must do so through Mr. Weber in the Bookstore before March 26.

***President Downs has announced that the Ford Foundation has awarded Clayton one winner award and two honorable mention awards in their new program providing scholarships for Upper Division Study for minority group students. According to Mrs. Lucy Champion, the college has nominated Dobbs Wiggins, a black sophomore college-transfer student, with Alice M. Baker and Norma J. Dodson as alternates.

***In cooperation with the Clayton County schools and the college, West Georgia College will offer the following graduate courses on the Clayton campus Spring Quarter:

Edu. 591	Group Counseling
Edu. 672	Instructional Supervision
Psy. 470G	Psychology of Exceptional Children

A meeting for advising prospective enrollees and all registration procedures will be held in the Classroom Building Monday, March 22 from 5 to 5:30 p.m.

All are five hour courses, with the first two meeting on campus on Monday nights, and the third on Thursdays. In addition, all courses will meet on the Carrollton campus from 9 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. on the Saturdays of April 17 and May 15.

Further information may be obtained through the Office of Community Services.

***The movie sponsored tonight by the Student Activities Committee will be "Planet of the Apes". Free showings will be held in B-15 at 7 and 9 p.m.

CAMPUS AND COMMUNITY

***At the request of local PTA leaders, Community Services has devised a basic "Leadership Learning Workshop" which will be offered to PTA members the week of March 22 at the Jonesboro United Methodist Church and the week of March 29 at the Philadelphia Presbyterian Church in Morrow. The workshops will be led by Don Nelson, director of community services at Georgia Tech, and will focus on basic leadership skills. It is anticipated that similar workshops will later be offered to other groups in the community.

***The subject of "Community Campus Report" at 12:30 p.m. Monday over WSSA Radio (1570), will be an interview with Dalton Wiley, Student Government Association president, on current and up-coming student activities on campus.

PEOPLE AND PLACES

MRS. LUCY CHAMPION has been visiting schools in Fulton County this week.

EDWARD J. GURRY has been advised that his article on "Auditing on Line Recording of Labor Transactions" has been accepted for publication by "The Federal Accountant," the official publication of the Federal Government Accountants Association.

DR. AVERY HARVILL will travel to Chapel Hill, N.C. April 13 through 18 to attend a workshop on "The Role of the Two-Year College in Preparing Recreation Specialists."

MRS. DORIS HOLLOWAY accompanied her two children, Lenora and Richard, in a violin concert presented on campus Friday, March 5.

PETER SCHINKEL traveled to Central Piedmont Community College March 7 and 8 to observe special programs in operation there.

INTRODUCING...

Dr. Jimmy C. Stokes joined the faculty of Clayton Junior College as an assistant professor of chemistry in September, 1970.

Dr. Stokes holds the Associate of Arts degree from Middle Georgia College, and B.S. Ed., M.E.D. and Ed.D. degrees from the University of Georgia, where he was an instructor of chemistry prior to coming to Clayton.

-A native of Cochran, Dr. Stokes is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Kappa Delta Pi, Phi Kappa Phi, Blue Key Leadership Fraternity, and has served as president of Alpha Phi Omega and on the Executive Council of the Baptist Student Union. He is a member of the American Chemical Society, the American Association for the Advancement of Science and the Georgia Academy of Science.

He and his wife, Jean, an elementary school teacher, belong to The Rock Baptist Church in Rex.