

CJ POTPOURRI

---

Volume III, No. 12

CLAYTON JUNIOR COLLEGE

April 2, 1971

---

ON CAMPUS

Wednesday, April 7, principals of Fulton County high schools within the service area of the college will be on campus as the guests of the president. Faculty and staff are requested to extend every courtesy to these secondary school administrators, who will be touring the campus.

"The Sterile Cuckoo" will be shown tonight at 7:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m. in B-15 as part of the Student Government Association's student activities series. Faculty and staff are invited to join the students at these free activities.

CAMPUS AND COMMUNITY

Mr. Howard Atherton, co-author of the "Umbrella Bill" passed in the last session of the General Assembly, addressed members of the South Metropolitan Atlanta Government Geographic Area (SMAGA) on campus last night.

PEOPLE AND PLACES

MRS. FRANCES BOWEN will attend the Georgia Business Education Association luncheon in Atlanta today in connection with the Georgia Education Association meeting.

DR. HARRY S. DOWNS was one of some 29 college and university presidents from four states who attended the inauguration of Augusta College's new president, George A. Christenberry, in Augusta last Friday.

DR. DOWNS, JAMES ROBERTSON, and BOB WINN will attend the University System Seminar on Public Service at Georgia State University Thursday, April 15.

ON OTHER CAMPUSES

The Morehouse-Spelman Players will give their last two performances of Ray McIvar's "God Is A Guess What?" at 8:00 in the Fine Arts Building tonight and tomorrow night.

Senator Michael Yeats, Chairman of the Senate, Republic of Ireland and son of poet William Butler Yeats, will lecture at Agnes Scott College Tuesday and Wednesday, April 6th and 7th at 8:15 p.m. in the Dana Fine Arts Building.

The Collegium Musicum of Emory University will perform Bach's St. Matthew Passion with the Atlanta-Emory Orchestra at 1:10 p.m. Friday, April 9 in Glenn Memorial Auditorium.

INTRODUCING

HUGH HUNTER PLATT, JR. joined the faculty of Clayton Junior College as an instructor of English in September, 1970.

A native of St. Louis, Missouri, Mr. Platt has attended California State College and George Washington University. He holds a B.A. degree in English from the University of California at Los Angeles and an M.A. degree in English from the University of Santa Barbara.

Mr. Platt served four years in the U. S. Navy, and has been a student teacher at Santa Barbara City College.

On March 13th, Mr. Platt and his wife, Carolyn became the proud parents of a son, Huchawn, which means "Little Hugh" in Gaelic.

"POTPOURRI" is published weekly by the Office of Information Services to provide news of interest to the faculty and staff. You are invited to submit news by the Wednesday noon preceding publication on Friday.