

CLAYTON POTPOURRI

Volume III, No. 5

Clayton Junior College

January 29, 1971

The date for Clayton's second annual Open House has been set for Sunday, May 2.

ON CAMPUS

***The new "Miss Clayton Junior College" is Hazel Bacon, with Shirley Woods and Vicki Chamblee named first and second runner-up respectively in a pageant staged by the Student Government Association in the cafeteria Wednesday evening.

***The college's first Capping Ceremony for freshmen students in the Nursing Program will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday, January 31 in the library. The Chamber Choir will provide music for the ceremony, and faculty, staff and families of students participating are invited to attend.

***Tuesday, February 2, representatives from some 27 public and private institutions in Georgia and the southeast will gather from 2 to 4 p.m. in the student lounge and dining room to answer student questions on transfer admissions. The program will be one of several being conducted by the senior college representatives at junior colleges throughout the state.

***Mrs. Lucy Champion has announced that the college has received an additional $4000 in Law Enforcement Education Program (LEEP) funds from the Department of Justice. The award raises the amount of funds available in grants and loans to participants in the college's Criminal Justice Program from $10,000 to $14,000.

***In addition, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) has awarded Clayton an additional $5,510 for nursing scholarships for the 1971 fiscal year. This raises the amount of funds available to students of exceptional financial need to $10,868.

CAMPUS AND COMMUNITY

***The Community Choir and Chamber Choir of Clayton Junior College will present their first public performance this year Sunday, February 7 at the Jonesboro Baptist Church at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend without charge.

***The subject of "Community Campus Report," Clayton's weekly public affairs program over WSSA, 1570 in Forest Park, will be an interview with Paul J. Eubanks of Georgia State University, who is teaching in Clayton's Criminal Justice Program this quarter.

The programs, originally announced for Fridays, have been rescheduled for between 12 and 12:30 p.m. on Mondays at the request of the radio station.

Next week's program will center on student reactions to the two-year criminal justice program.

***Bob Winn has announced that 503 persons have enrolled in Continuing Education Courses this quarter. This figure includes those participating in public service courses being offered free of charge.

IN TRIBUTE

The death of U.S. Senator Richard B. Russell reminds us that the Board of Regents and the University System of Georgia were established in 1931 during Russell's administration as Governor.

The act of placing all state-operated university and college units under a single governing board made Georgia one of the first states to have a statewide unified system of higher education.

PEOPLE AND PLACES

DALTON WILEY, MICHELE SHELLEM and STACEY WATTS traveled to Savannah Thursday to attend the SUSGA Conference and SAC meeting.

DR. JAMES STRICKLAND traveled to Georgia Southern College to attend a conference on transfer students held there January 14 and 15.

INTRODUCING

MISS ANNETTE BRISENDINE . . .

joined the faculty and staff of Clayton Junior College in the fall quarter, 1970 as an instructor of music and associate registrar.

She holds a B.A. degree in organ and music history from Duke University, has attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and is a candidate for an M.A. degree in musicology at the University of Georgia. Miss Brisendine has done graduate research on the organ hymns of Jean Titelouze and served as a graduate teaching assistant in music appreciation at the university.

She has also worked as a church organist in Durham, North Carolina and Atlanta as well as serving as an organist supply and interim organist at various churches in the area.

Miss Brisendine is a member of Delta Mu Tau, honorary music fraternity; Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary fraternity; and the American Guild of Organists.

A native of Atlanta, she is a member of Beecher Hills Baptist Church there.

"Potpourri" is published weekly by the Office of Information Services to provide news of interest to the faculty and staff. You are invited to submit news by the Wednesday noon preceding publication on Friday.