

CCJ > POTPOURRI

Volume III, No. 8

Clayton Junior College

February 19, 1971

ON CAMPUS

Vice Chancellor H.F. Robinson and Assistant Vice Chancellor Haskin R. Pounds of the Board of Regents visited on campus yesterday and met with members of the administration and division chairmen.

According to Dean Jerry Williamson, all classes will be suspended Monday, Feb. 22 for advisement.

CAMPUS AND COMMUNITY

The subject of "Community Campus Report" Monday, Feb. 22 at 12:30 p.m. over WSSA Radio will be an interview with Stephen Edwards and three students enrolled in Clayton's Criminal Justice Program.

PEOPLE AND PLACES

HUGH PLATT traveled to Central Piedmont College in Charlotte, N.C. recently to investigate the remedial English program there.

ON OTHER CAMPUSES

Friday, Feb. 19 and Saturday, Feb. 20, the Morehouse-Spelman Players will present the last two performances of "Ananse and the Glue Man," an African play for children, at 8 p.m. in the Spelman College Fine Arts Building.

Monday, Feb. 22, Le Treteau De Paris, French touring players, will present "Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme" by Moliere at 8:15 p.m. in Presser Hall at Agnes Scott. Tickets available through Alliance Francaise, 525-2900.

Georgia Tech will sponsor a "Technology Week" February 21-27 to coincide with National Engineers Week. A display of technological exhibits will coincide with the three day conference portion, which will feature such speakers as Sen. Charles Percy of Illinois; Harold Finger, assistant secretary for research and technology, HUD; Dr. David J. Rose of MIT; and Walter Hickel, former Secretary of the Interior. According to Brent Jorgeson, student coordinator for Technology Week, activities are open to the public, and students from Clayton are especially invited to attend.

INTRODUCING . . .

ROBERT C. BOLANDER, Dean of Students, joined the faculty of Clayton Junior College as Assistant professor of history and director of student activities in August, 1970.

A native of Illinois and Virginia, he holds a B.A. degree in economics and an M.A. in history from the College of William & Mary, and has been instructor of economics and history at Old Dominion University, Norfolk, Va.

Before coming to Clayton, Mr. Bolander was a graduate teaching assistant in history at the University of Georgia, where he is a candidate for the Ph.D. degree.

While at the university, he was named to "Who's Who Among University and College Students in America," and is a member of Blue Key National Honorary Leadership Fraternity; Omicron Delta Kappa, national honorary student leadership and scholarship fraternity; Sigma Pi Fraternity; Phi Alpha Theta, honorary history fraternity; and the Southern and American Historical Associations.

Mr. Bolander is married to the former Jeanne English, and they make their home in Forest Park.

"Potpourri" is published weekly by the Office of Information Services to provide news of interest to the faculty and staff. You are invited to submit news by the Wednesday noon preceding publication on Friday.