

"Community Campus Report" over WSSA Radio Monday, March 1 will be music by the Chamber Choir and an interview with Paul Wiens. The combined Community Chorus and Chamber Choir will appear in concert Sunday, March 7 at the East Point Presbyterian Church at 7:30 p.m.

PEOPLE AND PLACES

DR. CHARLES L. DOWNS, PRESIDENT HARRY S. DOWNS, DR. NEAL HAGOOD, DEAN JERRY M. WILLIAMSON, and DR. VERA B. ZALKOW are attending the 1971 American Association of Junior Colleges Convention in Washington D.C. through March 4.

STEPHEN EDWARDS went to DeKalb College February 12 and 13 to attend a regional Law Enforcement Education Program meeting.

EDWARD J. GURRY is at Macon Junior College today attending the annual meeting of the Georgia Association of Accountants.

DR. AVERY HARVILL will attend the Southern District Health, Physical Education, Recreation Convention in Oklahoma City today through Sunday.

MRS. ANN SPRAGUE travels to Piedmont College in North Carolina February 27 to look over the general program of the college.

INTRODUCING . . .

DR. JAMES F. STRICKLAND, JR. came to Clayton Junior College in September, 1970 as a temporary assistant professor of mathematics.

A native of Douglas, he attended the Georgia Institute of Technology from 1959 to 1962, and earned his B.S., M.Ed. and Ed.D. degrees from the University of Georgia, where he graduated Phi Beta Kappa and was later a graduate teaching assistant.

Dr. Strickland is also a member of Phi Kappa Phi and an active member of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics.

He served with the U.S. Army from 1968 to 1970, when he was an instructor with the Ballistic Institute, an extension of the University of Delaware.

Dr. Strickland is a Southern Baptist who teaches Sunday School and Training Union classes, and he and his wife, Barbara, and daughter, Kim, make their home in Decatur.

"Potpourri" is published weekly by the Office of Information Services to provide news of interest to the faculty and staff. You are invited to submit news by the Wednesday noon preceding publication on Friday.